

Claudia Shisler was born and raised in the suburbs of Chicago and later moved to High Point, North Carolina, where she attended High Point University. Claudia earned her Bachelor's degree in Elementary Education and Spanish, followed by a Master's in Educational Leadership from the same institution.

Claudia has spent 8 years teaching across various grade levels all within public charter schools, with the majority of her experience in 1st and 3rd grade. In February of 2024, she began her role as Assistant Principal at Jacksonville Classical Academy and has cherished the time she has had working alongside powerful educators. Her passion lies in helping children thrive and making learning a memorable experience for both students and their families!
