

ALLY MEANS

TRACK + FIELD

Ally Means joined Jacksonville Classical Academy as a second grade teacher in 2024 and serves as the assistant Track and Field Coach. As a student-athlete, Ally competed in soccer, basketball, cross country and track and field, developing strong love and respect for athletics.

Ally attended the University of Florida, where she earned a degree in Educational Sciences with a specialization of Disabilities in Society.

Ally is dedicated to fostering a love of athletics through hard work and discipline. She continues to uplift the next generation of student athletes by bringing sportsmanship, competitiveness and high energy.

Paula is proud to be part of the Jacksonville Classical Academy's athletic program and is excited to continue to build a competitive, fun, and inspiring environment for the girls' volleyball team.
