

PAULA WHITE

HIGH SCHOOL VOLLEYBALL

Paula White joined Jacksonville Classical Academy as a teacher in 2023/2024 school year and serves as the Head JV/Varsity Girls Volleyball Coach. As a student-athlete, Paula competed in Volleyball and Softball, developing a deep love for athletics. Paula attended Aidan University, where she earned a degree in Elementary Education and Organizational Leadership.

Paula is a passionate coach and dedicated mentor and is committed to developing athletes both on and off the court. She believes in empowering girls to push beyond their limits, to develop a love for the sport of volleyball and grow as competitors. Paula is excited to inspire the next generation of competitive Volleyball girls and help them reach their full potential both individually and as a team.

Paula believes in fostering a supportive team environment with hard work, respect, and discipline. She emphasizes the importance of communication, teamwork, and personal growth, both on and off the court. What excites Paula the most about coaching is the opportunity to mentor and help them develop both their volleyball skills and life skills. She strives to cultivate confidence, resilience, and a love for the game in every player.

Paula is proud to be part of the Jacksonville Classical Academy's athletic program and is excited to continue to build a competitive, fun, and inspiring environment for the girls' volleyball team.
